★ Quantum Value Fund

QVF, adopts a value style, that aims for long-term capital appreciation by investing in attractively priced stocks. QVF's robust research driven approach and stringent risk management processes including the Quantum proprietary "Integrity Screen" helps the fund deliver its growth potential over the next two years thereby reducing the uncertainty associated with equity investing. The fund invests across market capitalisation and is sector agnostic. It maintains a focused portfolio of 25-40 stocks. Suited for investors who are looking to preserve wealth in the relatively high-risk equity category, the QVF forms the foundation of your Equity Investing, by offering stability and reliability to your Portfolio. Investors seeking a dependable option for their long-term financial goals can consider this fund.
